

Clark County School District Earns Accreditation

The Clark County School District became the first school district in Nevada and second school district in the country to achieve national accreditation from IAS. Until recently, rapid population growth caused the CCSD to open a new school in the Las Vegas area on a monthly basis. Lisa Conner, Chief Building Official and Director of the CCSD, was presented with the IAS Certificate of Building Department Accreditation by IAS Chairman Mike Bouse in a formal ceremony.

Clark County School District BDA Certificate Presentation
From left to right: Dave Broxterman (CCSD), Isam Hasenin (IAS Board Member), IAS Chairman Mike Bouse, Lisa Conner, CBO, CCSD Director, ICC Board Vice President Ron Lynn, and Paul Gerner (CCSD)