

COSPER, William

William "Hal" Cosper, 65, of Powder Springs, Georgia. Beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother and son, passed away on July 15, 2015. He was preceded in death by his parents, William Harold Cosper and Willie Sue Cosper. He is survived by his wife of 31 special years, Janet, his sister Melissa Huff, daughters Aimee (husband Bob McGarity), Lori and Jenny Cosper, and grandchildren India and Ethan-Wyatt Cosper. He had many friends that are like family and many other relatives and in-laws that were his friends. Hal attended Powder Springs School and McEachern High School. He was well known for his expertise in many fields and was respected throughout Cobb County and the State of Georgia. He was the Chief Building Official for the City of Marietta for over twenty years. He earned accolades from the inspection and building communities by serving on many boards and organizations, including the Northwest Georgia Inspectors Association, Metro Atlanta Inspectors Association and the Georgia State Licensing Board. He was president of the Building Officials Association of Georgia from 2012-2013. He achieved the highest level of certification by the International Code Council as Master Code Professional. Hal loved his family, friends, gardening and working on cars. The family held a private internment service. A memorial service will be held at Bellamy's Funeral Home in Hiram, Georgia on Saturday, August 1st, at 11:00 am with visitation at 10:00 am for all family and friends. Hal was well loved and will be sorely missed. Please consider a donation to Habitat for Humanity or American Heart Association (or a charity of your choice).
