

BIO

P. Michael Murphy

Doctor of Business Administration, F-ABMDI

P. Michael Murphy is employed as a program manager for The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. He retired as the Coroner for the Clark County Office of the Coroner/ Medical Examiner after 13 years, in addition while being Coroner; he was the Interim Director of Juvenile Justice Services for Clark County and County Lobbyist for the 76th & 77th Legislative Sessions of the Nevada Legislature.

Dr. Murphy brings forty plus years of law enforcement and public service experience to the position, working as an entry level police officer in Kansas City, Kansas to serving as Chief of Police in Mesquite, Nevada. He has worked for several municipalities including Boulder City, Mesquite, City of Las Vegas and Clark County.

Michael has served as President of the International Association of Coroner & Medical Examiners (IAC&ME), the Nevada Chapter of the FBI National Academy (FBINA), Nevada Sheriff's and Chief's Association, Chairman of the State of Nevada Peace Officer's Standards and Training Commission (POST) as well as Advisory Board member of the Violent Criminal Apprehension Program (ViCAP). He continues to serve on numerous committees at the federal, state and local levels.

He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy and has a doctoral degree in Business Administration with California Pacific University. He is also a Fellow with the American Board of Medicolegal Death Investigators. Dr. Murphy has been awarded the Administrator of the Year by the American Society of Public Administrator (ASPA) Nevada Chapter, Clark County Director of the Year and his office received the Outstanding Contributions in the Field of Death Investigations and Unidentified Victims Awards from the International Homicide Investigator's Association. Dr. Murphy was also featured in VegasSeven Weekly Magazine as one of the Most Intriguing People. Most recently Nevada Donor Network awarded Murphy the 1st Annual Infinity award for excellence in service to donation recipients and the community at large.

Dr. Murphy is a guest lecturer, instructor and subject matter consultant regarding law enforcement topics, medicolegal death investigations, management topics and a wide variety of motivational presentations. He has been honored to provide instructional guidance internationally on multiple occasions, to various government agencies and private industries in countries around the world.